

Shivani Trivedi Bio

Shivani Trivedi, Tax Accountant

Shivani grew up in Gujarat, which is a state in India. As a kid, she liked to play outdoor games like badminton. She went to Gujarat University to pursue her bachelor's degree. She graduated in 2018. She then pursued a degree in Advance Financial Management and Analysis. She is also an Inter CA and preparing for her final examination. While pursuing these courses, she developed a keen interest in financial management and taxation. As an educational expert in financial management and taxation, she looks forward to pursuing a career in a stream that could help her utilize and advance her skills.

She aspires to have a Golden Retriever in her life one day. When she is not working, she is driving along beached, painting, going on hikes and cooking outdoors with family and friends. She also never misses a chance to binge-watch a favorite movie.
